August Beresheim House
621 3rd Street
(712) 322-2406
dodgehouse.org
Tuesday - Saturday | Call/visit website for hours
Built in 1899, this house was built for banker and state legislator August Beresheim. The museum is part of the Dodge Museum Complex and includes exhibits like a glass collection and Beresheim family artifacts. National Historic Register.

Blockhouse Site Marker
Pierce/Franklin & Union Streets
This historic marker stands in honor of Council Bluffs’ first building, constructed by the U.S. Dragoons in 1837.

Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge
Tom Hanafan River’s Edge Park
4250 River’s Edge Parkway
(712) 890-5291
visitomaha.com/bob/
The 3,000 foot-long and 15 foot-wide bridge connects Council Bluffs to Omaha, Nebraska across the Missouri River. It serves as a way for walkers, runners, and bicyclists to access 150 miles of trails within the metro. Don’t forget to go “bobbing” — striking a pose while standing in two states at the same time! Handicapped accessible.

Bregant House
517 S. 4th Street
preservecouncilbluffs.org
Closed for restoration
Known as the “Little People’s House,” the historic Bregant House was built in 1912 for former Vaudeville performers Jean and Inez Bregant to accommodate their height of 42” and 39” respectively. Funds are being raised to restore the home. While you can’t tour the inside, the exterior is still a sight to see between its neighboring homes. National Historic Register.

Broadway Fountain
West Broadway and Pearl Streets
(712) 890-5291
visitomaha.com/bob/
Once the focal point – the centerpiece – of Bayliss Park, this intricate cast iron fountain now has a new home at the north entrance of downtown. Manufactured in New York in 1890, the fountain is now flanked by a vintage clock tower and flower beds to welcome people to the downtown business district.

California Gold Rush Trail Historic Site
Pioneer Trail & Dumfries Avenue, 8 miles SE of CB
This marker tells the story of the 1849 Gold Rushers and pioneers.

(712) 325-9368
Tuesdays | Call for hours
The Pottawattamie County Genealogical Society owns and operates this library and museum that holds many artifacts and links to Council Bluffs’ past.

Golden Spike Monument
S. 21st Street & 9th Avenue
To commemorate the premiere of the movie “Union Pacific” in Omaha in 1939, this 56-foot-tall golden concrete spike was erected to commemorate the junction of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific rail lines at Promontory Summit in Utah on May 10, 1869. This spot commemorates “Mile Zero” as the eastern terminus of the transcontinental railroad.

Grand Encampment/Mormon Battalion Mustering Grounds Marker
1600 S. Hwy 275
The Grand Encampment was where Mormons met after traveling across Iowa in 1846. Shortly after, the U.S. Army sought volunteers and 500 people, known as the Mormon Battalion, took up the call and trekked to the West Coast.
Historic General Dodge House
605 3rd Street
(712) 322-2406
dodgehouse.org
Tuesday-Saturday | Call/visit website for hours
Council Bluffs’ shining gem, the Historic General Dodge House is historically authentic. This lavish three-story, 14-room Victorian home was built in 1869 by General Grenville M. Dodge, a Civil War veteran and the “greatest railroad builder of all time.”
National Historic Landmark.

Historic Squirrel Cage Jail
226 Pearl Street
(712) 323-2509
thehistoricalsociety.org/museums/
Call/visit website for hours
This 1885 three-story, Victorian-Gothic style, brick structure is extremely unique as it is only one of three left in existence. It served as the jail between 1865 and 1969. Town legend has it that the jail is haunted. During Halloween season — and sometimes throughout the year — the jail hosts popular flashlight tours and paranormal investigations. National Historic Register.

Historic 100 Block of West Broadway
100 Block of West Broadway
cb100block.com
The Historic 100 Block is a section of downtown Council Bluffs that is home to nightlife and several dining options. Locally-owned businesses keep the block lively morning, day, and night. Special events regularly occur on the block like summer’s Bike Nights and the holidays’ Ugly Sweater Pub Crawl.

Council Bluffs Recreation Trails
(712) 890-5291
cbparksandrec.org
Council Bluffs is home to a 41-mile, continuous system of trails including the Indian Creek, Iowa Riverfront, Lake Manawa, Valley View, and Wabash Trace trails. The paved system is made up of 10 foot-wide poured concrete and asphalt trails, with bike lanes on city streets used to link the trails together. Handicapped accessible.

Iowa Riverfront Trail
(712) 890-5291
traillink.com
The Riverfront Trail connects Big Lake Park, Narrows River Park, Roberts Park, Tom Hanafan River’s Edge Park, Dodge Riverside Golf Club, and Western Historic Trails Center.

Iowa School for the Deaf Nature Center Trail
3501 Harry Langdon Boulevard
(712) 366-3213
Scenic, quiet one-mile loop walking trail, good for all skill levels. Accessible year round. Dogs on leashes are welcome. Handicapped accessible.

Lake Manawa Recreation Trail
Lake Manawa State Park
1100 S. Shore Drive
(712) 366-0220
traillink.com
This paved trail, perfect for jogging or a bike ride, connects to the area’s trail system, including the Wabash Trace Nature Trail and the Indian Creek Trail. Looking for something more extreme? There are roughly eight miles of mountain bike trails in the park. They’re located near the boat ramps on the Missouri River.

Valley View Trail
14672-14644 Valley View Drive
(712) 890-5291
traillink.com
Valley View Trail is great for biking, inline skating, walking, and jogging. The southern end of the trail links with Lake Manawa Trail and Wabash Trace Nature Trail. The northern end of the trail used to end at Iowa Western Community College but is now extended to US 6. The trail passes through residential, commercial, and rural areas.

Wabash Trace Nature Trail/Iowa West Foundation Trailhead Park
East South Omaha Bridge Road & Wabash Avenue
(712) 326-8207
wabashtrace.org
The Wabash Trace Nature Trail spans 63 miles through southwest Iowa as part of a converted railroad right-of-way that runs from Council Bluffs on the north to Blanchard on the Iowa/Missouri Border. The trail is home to the locally famous Thursday Taco Ride.

Eagles of Honor
eaglesofhonorproject.com
Each community in Pottawattamie County raised funds so that every town and city in the county has an “Eagle of Honor,” a hand-crafted bronze eagle statue to honor military veterans. Visit their website or the Stars and Bronze Tribute Trail page on TrailCapitalOfIowa.com for details and statue locations.

Octagon House
Graceland Cemetery
(712) 343-2477
